

The Namaus Project!

Tribal Environmental Health Awareness Day

April 22, 2018

Schoolhouse Pond

As part of the Namaus (All Things Fish) Project, the Narragansett Tribe's Environmental Protection Program seeks tribal adults (18+) to participate in an event to catch fish, learn of our tribal fishing methods, hear stories about traditional fishing from our Elders, and be informed about the health impacts of environmental contaminants.

Tribal Artists - There will be a special outreach event for community-based arts initiatives.
