Burn Wise

epa.gov/burnwise

The NIT Environmental Protection Program and the EPA is hosting a Woodsmoke Burn Wise Workshops for Tribal households.

The purpose for the workshop will be to inform Tribal households about:

- Health effects from burning wood improperly
- Reduce woodsmoke pollution
- Learn how to burn wood the right way
- Learn on to store and build storage space for wood
- Encourage homeowners to protect their homes, health, and the air we breath
- EPA-certified wood burning appliances.
