

Silver Clouds'

Honoring Our Elders

Annual Elder's Day May 17th, 2025

The Narragansett Indian Silver Clouds in partnership with the Tomaquag Museum invite you to participate in the 2025 Narragansett Youth Art Contest! To encourage the continuation of our traditional arts, we have three contests this year. An art competition for youth grades K- 4th, 5th - 8th, and 9th -12th. Each youth may submit one piece in any medium from traditional to contemporary that expresses their Narragansett identity and community. Art showing and contest will be held on Elder's Day, May 17, 2025.

Art Contest Guidelines

Youth grades 5-12 may submit one piece in any medium from traditional to contemporary that expresses their Narragansett identity and community. Beadwork, basketry, weaving, pottery, painting, drawing, collage, photography, wampum work, quillwork, carving, sculpting, etc! Parents may help guide you, but you must have completed the work on your own. All entries are kept anonymous for judging by the Elders. Three winners in each age category will be announced at the end of the Elder's Day Program on May 17th.

K-4th grade

1st $100
2nd $ 75
3rd. $ 50

5th-8th grade

1st. $100
2nd. $ 75
3rd $ 50

9th-12th grade

1st. $100
2nd. $ 75
3rd $ 50

All winning art will be kept on display at the senior center for one month and then returned to entrants. All others can then be taken home at the end of day or picked up from the Tomaquag Museum anytime after. Call to arrange pickup time. If not picked up within 30 days, we will consider the piece forfeit.

How To Enter

Complete the registration and submission forms and return with your finished art work. Forms can be picked up at the senior center or you can download online at the website below. Entries can be dropped off at the Tomaquag Museum prior to May 16th or on May 16th between 4:00pm-6:00pm at the Narragansett Tribe Senior Center. No exceptions.

Questions? Call Tomaquag Museum at (401) 491-9063 or email us at:
iec-info@tomaquagmuseum.org